

To the FCC: I am distressed that you are considering giving in to the Bell carriers -- they have stonewalled providing us with fast, low-cost service for years and show no signs of stopping.

They are still defacto monopolies and should be treated as such.